RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY PRICE INDICES AND INFLATION First Quarter 2025/2026 PRESS RELEASE

1.0 ANNUAL RESULTS

The Annual Residential Property Inflation as measured by the Residential Property Price Index for the year ending quarter one FY2025/26 registered 4.7 percent compared to 4.8 percent registered in the year ended quarter four FY2024/25, as shown in Table1 and Figure 1 below.

This is mainly attributed to prices of residential properties in ‘Kampala Central & Makindye’ that registered minus 10.2 percent for the year ending quarter one FY 2025/26 compared to minus 3.1 percent registered in year ended quarter four FY2024/25.

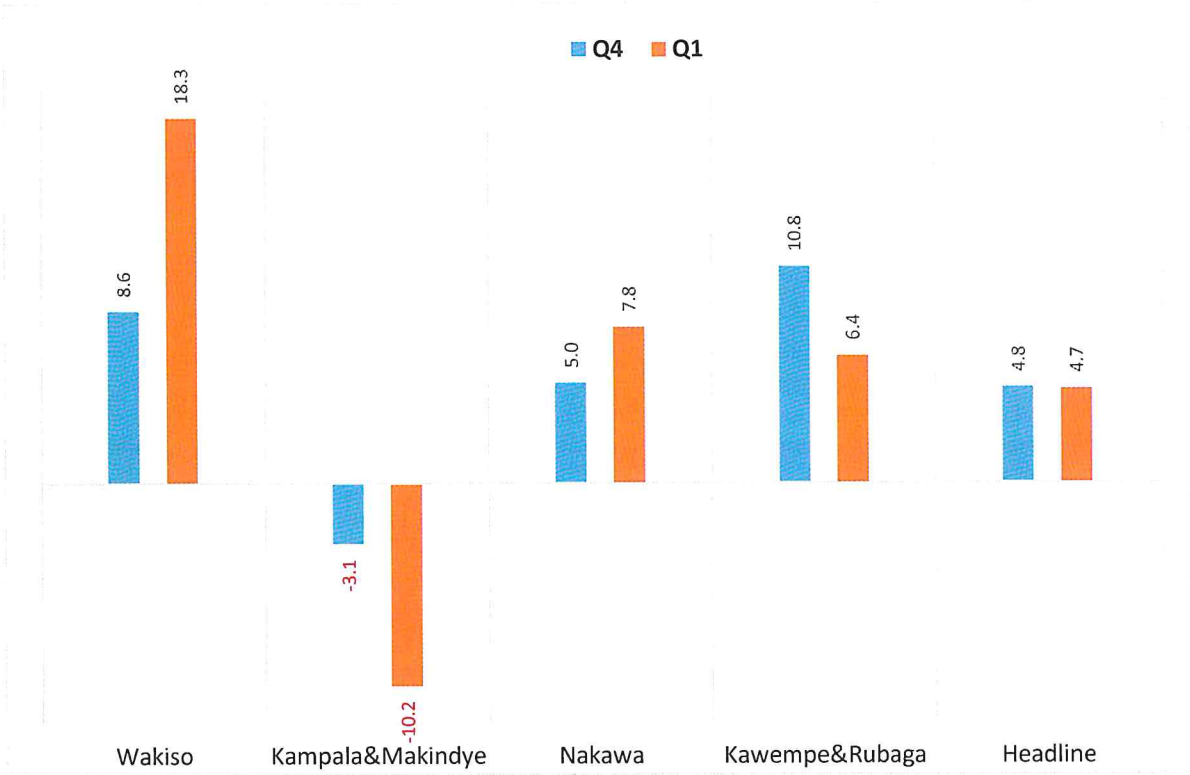

In addition, Residential Property prices in ‘Kawempe & Rubaga’ registered 6.4 percent for the year ending quarter one FY2025/26 compared to 10.8 percent registered in the year ended quarter four FY2024/25.

However, residential properties in Wakiso registered 18.3 percent for the year ending quarter one FY 2025/26 compared to 8.6 percent registered in year ended quarter four FY2024/25. Residential Property prices in Nakawa registered 7.8 percent for year ending quarter one FY2025/26 compared to 5.0 percent registered in the year ended quarter four FY2024/25.

2.0 QUARTERLY RESULTS

The quarterly inflation for residential properties for GKMA increased by 2.9 percent in quarter one FY2025/26 from the 2.7 percent rise registered in quarter four FY2024/25 as shown in Figure 2 and Appendix table 3.

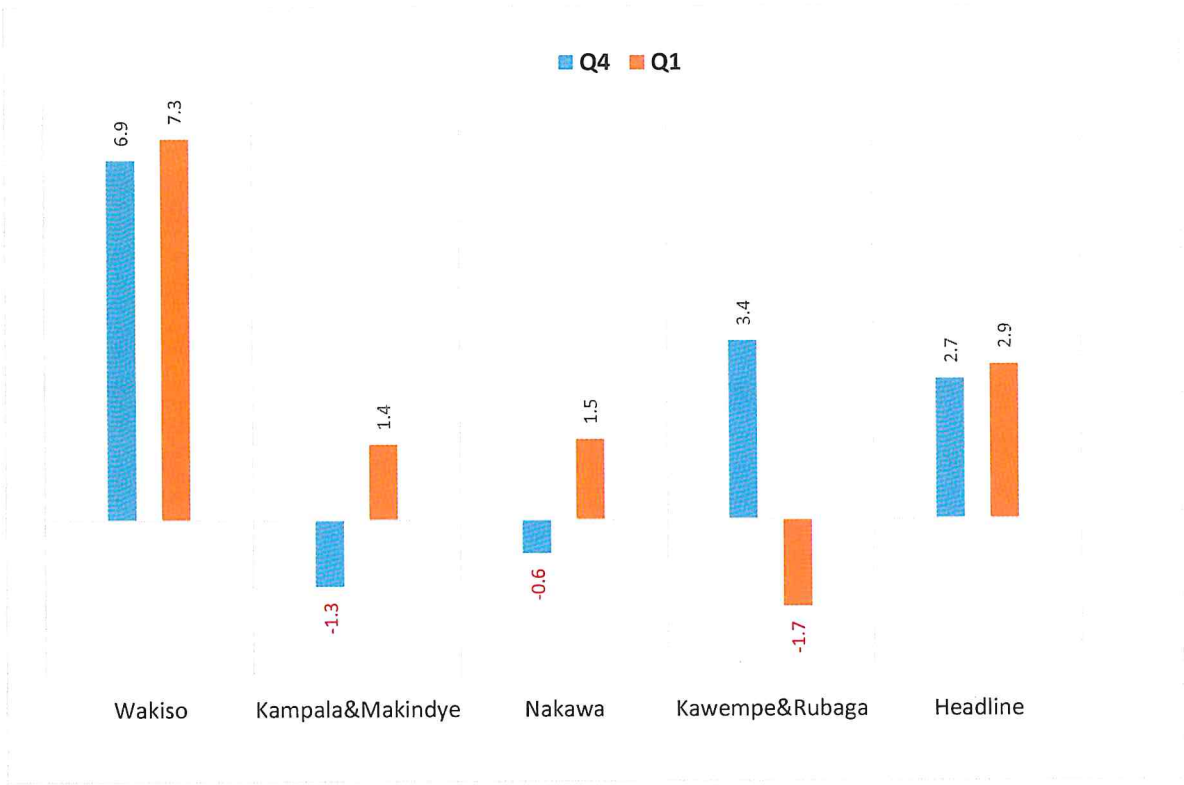

The rise in the quarterly inflation is attributed to residential properties inflation in Wakiso that increased by 7.3 percent in quarter one FY2025/26 from the 6.9 percent rise registered in quarter four FY2024/25.

In addition, residential properties inflation in ‘Kampala Central & Makindye’ increased by 1.4 percent in quarter one FY2025/26 from 1.3 percent drop registered in quarter four FY2024/25. Residential properties inflation in Nakawa registered a 1.5 percent rise in quarter one FY2025/26 from 0.6 percent drop registered in quarter four FY2025/26.

However, residential properties inflation in ‘Kawempe & Rubaga’ decreased by 1.7 percent in quarter one FY2025/26 from 3.4 percent rise registered in quarter four FY2024/25.
